A Church That series week 1 - Worships

- 1 Come, let us sing for joy to the Lord;
let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation.
- 2 Let us come before him with thanksgiving and extol him with music and song.
- 3 For the Lord is the great God,
the great King above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are the depths of the earth,
and the mountain peaks belong to him.
- 5 The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.
- 6 Come, let us bow down in worship,
let us kneel before the Lord our Maker;
- 7 for he is our God
and we are the people of his pasture,
the flock under his care.
- Today, if only you would hear his voice,
- 8 "Do not harden your hearts as you did at Meribah,
as you did that day at Massah in the wilderness, 9 where your ancestors tested me;
they tried me, though they had seen what I did.
- 10 For forty years I was angry with that generation;
I said, 'They are a people whose hearts go astray,
and they have not known my ways.'
- 11 So I declared on oath in my anger,
'They shall never enter my rest.'" Psalm 95:1-11

Worship is the act of ascribing ultimate _____ to something, in a way that energizes and engages your _____ being.

Worship is something that engages your _____, _____ and _____, your entire being.

Talk It Over

Read all of Psalm 95. What part sticks out to you?

What things in your life have a tendency to replace God in ascribing ultimate value?

What is a situation you are currently dealing with where you can, rather than ask God for something, choose to worship him in the midst of it?

Have you ever considered rest a key aspect to growing in worship?

How can the idea of resting in the gospel play out in your worship?
